

Criteria for the Hawthorn Bank
2013 Student Scholarship

1. Applicant must currently be a senior in High School.
 2. Applicant must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA or above.
 3. Applicant must plan to pursue a higher education degree in business or finance.
 4. Applicant must have received no more than 4 disciplinary actions while in high school (e.g., detentions, ISS, OSS, etc.)
 5. Applicant must submit the completed and signed scholarship application to any Hawthorn Bank location no later than March 31, 2013. Mailed applications must be postmarked on or before March 31, 2013.
 6. All information must be typed (no handwritten applications will be accepted) and all additional sheets must be stapled to the application form.
 7. Applicant should not put his/her name or ANY personal identifying information on the additional sheets. Each application will be assigned a number, which will be placed on the cover sheet and on each additional sheet of the application. The cover sheet will then be removed before the applications are submitted to the panel of judges, so the judges will not know the identity of any of the applicants until after the judging has been completed.
 8. All statements and essays must be composed by the applicant and submitted in type-written format.
 9. Hawthorn Bank customer affiliation is not a requirement for scholarship application
